In the remaining record of Stafford is a rent made 1690 by a white servant endeavoring to obtain his freedom. He states he was sold to Tho. Howard, decd. "predecessor to Mr. Rice Howe", (which means Howe had Mrs. Howards widow) + had served 6 yrs, making it all 1684 when he was sold. In the same W. C. of 1691 is a rent of Rice Howe who was Mary Marney widow. In a deed in Stafford 1701, is mention of a mill on Occoquan built by the father of Mr. Rice Howe, then living. The Rice Howe of the text was probably the father of the first of the name in Stafford though there is no positive proof. See May 16 427-429. XII-319
